

Carol Teal has been part of the square dancing community since 1971, calling her first singing square in 1973. A graduate of the Houston Callers Class of 1974, she has spent over two decades calling for the Swinging Seniors and currently brings her energy and expertise to Daytime Squares. Carol is passionate about sharing the joy of this family-friendly tradition, introducing new dancers through parties, historical celebrations, and school events.